District Medical Society Information (FREE for Medical Students)

MMS members must belong to a local district medical society. Society information flows through each district's elected leaders. Consider becoming involved locally. You can join either the district in which you attend school or the one in which you live. For a complete list of districts by cities and towns, visit www.massmed.org. Massachusetts medical schools fall within the following districts:

HMS, Norfolk District

BUSM, Suffolk District

TUSM, Suffolk District

UMMS, Worcester District

Conditions of AMA membership and application:

As part of a physician organization committed to strengthening the ethics of medicine, every member pledges to uphold the Principles of Medical Ethics as interpreted in the Code of Medical Ethics, and to comply with the Bylaws of the American Medical Association and the Rules of the AMA Council on Ethical and Judicial Affairs.

- The AMA Principles and the Code of Medical Ethics: www.ama-assn.org/go/codeofmedicalethics
- The AMA's Bylaws and Rules of the Council on Ethical and Judicial Affairs: www.ama-assn.org/go/ceja

Applicants and members are required to disclose to the AMA Office of General Counsel any violations of the Principles of Medical Ethics or unprofessional conduct including actions taken regarding professional licensure, medical staff privileges, or felony or fraud convictions. Additionally, the Health Care Quality Improvement Act requires professional societies (such as the AMA) to report certain professional review actions, including denial of membership, to the National Practitioner Data Bank.
