Leading with Impact: Essentials for Physician Leadership in an Uncertain Environment

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Physicians today operate in fast-paced complex health care environments that demand adaptive leadership. The MMS is collaborating with the Hanley Center for Health Leadership & Education to take participants on a skill-building journey to gain essential skills for leading self, others, and the enterprise.

Whether you hold a formal or informal leadership role, you will strengthen both the soft and hard skills of meaningful, effective leadership while focusing on communication agility, giving and receiving feedback, navigating difficult conversations, and change leadership in an uncertain environment.

The virtual program balances presentation of state-of-the-art models with the opportunity to work in small groups on real cases and challenges.

Don't Wait.

Build your confidence to take on leadership roles and foster thriving teams!
